

I have learned how the parts are brought in, cleaned, inspected, the components of reactors and their functions, and eventually moved into gaining experience in the methods and procedures of chemical vapor deposition. This internship opportunity has shown me the vast business opportunities that exist in this humble, little city. Thank you!

~ Brock W. Cook ~

