

Working at Bluewater Thermal Solutions has been an amazing learning experience. I have gained new technology, organizational, and communication skills. With hopes of coming back to the area, this internship has shown me the benefits of living and working in our region. It has also prepared me for future employment opportunities I will encounter.