

I interned at Varischetti Holdings as an accounting assistant, where I learned many accounting skills that will benefit me in the future. I love the people that I work with; we work great together as a team. My internship was very enjoyable, and I have learned and grown a lot.