

Adult Education and Family Literacy Services in the North Central Region

Funded through the Pennsylvania Department of Education using Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and Act 143 state funding

2019-2020

CAREER SERVICES

INCLUDING:

Outreach, intake, and orientation

Initial assessment of skill levels including literacy and numeracy as well as supportive service needs

Referrals to and coordination with other programs and services

Provision of information on providers of education, training, and workforce services

Provision of information and referrals for supportive services

Who are North Central adult learners?

- ⇒ Have specific goals such as high school equivalency diploma, employment, job advancement, and/or enrolling in college/training programs
- ⇒ Need to improve reading math and/or writing skills
- ⇒ May have had little exposure to career exploration or employer expectations

Flexible services to meet job seekers' needs

Day and evening classes

Tutoring

Distance Learning

Supplemental classes for specific skills

| Provider  | Counties served                                  | Program Director | Email  |
|---|--|------------------|--|
| CIU#10 Development Center for Adults   | ClearfieldCentreClinton                  | Jenna Witherite  | jwitherite@ciu10.org         |
| Seneca Highlands IU9*Jefferson County served by Community Action, Inc. | CameronElkMcKeanPotter*Jefferson | Kelly Davis      | kdavis@iu9.org                     |
| Jefferson Clarion Head Start   | JeffersonClarion                             | Pam Johnson      | pjohnson@jcheadstart.com |